Rapid City, South Dakota

Saturday, March 25, 1972

8:00 p. m.

Guest Conductor

John P. Paynter
Director of Bands
Northwestern University
Evanston, Illinois

John P. Paynter has been at Northwestern University since 1946 when he entered the School of Music as a student of theory and composition. He was named Acting Director of Bands in 1950-51, Director of Marching Band and Instructor of Music Theory in 1951-53, and succeeded Glenn Cliffe Bainum as Director of Bands in 1953 until the present. He is currently Professor of Music and Director of Band Organizations. In addition to heading the Band Department, Paynter teaches classes in conducting, arranging, band techniques, and orchestration. Under his direction, the Northwestern University Marching and Concert Bands rank with the finest in the nation.

Paynter is editor of the New Music column of the INSTRUMENTALIST music magazine; director of the nationally acclaimed North Shore Concert Band of Wilmette (Ill.); and an active composer and arranger with some 400 works to his credit. In constant demand as an adjudicator, clinician and guest conductor, he has appeared in these capacities in 47 of the 50 states, in Canada and Europe. He has gained the respect of bandsmen everywhere, as is evidenced by his high standing in the organizations to which he belongs; National Band Association (co-founder and past-president); the American Bandmasters Association (past member, Board of Directors); the Music Educators National Conference (numerous committee assignments); and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia (life member).

Alternates -- South Dakota All-State Band

All-State Band students are chosen by State-wide auditions. This year over 1,200 students were auditioned for places in the All-State Band. In most sections it is quite likely that some students will have the same audition score as some who are in the band. The following considerations are used in breaking tie scores:

1. A student whose school is not represented has first priority.
2. Upper-classmen are given preference over under-classmen.
3. If neither of these criteria apply, the audition judge breaks the tie.

Below is a list of students who tied for membership in All-State Band, but were eliminated by one of the above considerations:

FLUTE

Marsha Mast, Sioux Valley
Valerie Roth, Huron
Joanne Schafer, Mitchell
Debra Hanson, Beresford
Ann Peterson, Vermillion
Jane Quail, Brookings

B^b CLARINET
