ALL-STATE BAND BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The members of the All-State Band were selected by auditioning at one of the five audition centers throughout the State. The four audition judges fly around the State to each site over a period of six days and listen to students. From that number the 165 students that are in this year's band were selected. The members of the Band represent 45 South Dakota schools.

In this year's band there are nine students who have played in All-State Band for four years. They are:

The South Dakota Bandmasters Association is proud to be Co-Sponsoring this All-State Concert with the South Dakota High School Activities Association. It is the hopes of both Associations that the participants and members of the audience will continue to realize the vital role that music and music education plays in our lives and in our world.

GUEST CONDUCTOR

ROBERT W. SMITH

Robert W. Smith (b. 1958) is the Director of Bands at Troy State University. In addition to his administrative duties, he is the conductor of the TSU Symphony Band and the TSU Chamber Winds and director of the nationally renowned "Sound of the South" Marching Band.

He is one of the most popular and prolific composers of concert band literature in America today. He has more than 350 publications with the majority composed and arranged through his long-term association with Warner Brothers Publications, which recently released under its CPP Media Records label The Divine Comedy: The Symphonic Music of Robert W. Smith. "The Inferno" and "The Ascension" from that symphony have received worldwide critical acclaim. His original works for winds and percussion have been programmed by countless military, university, high school, and middle school bands throughout the United States, Canada, Europe, and Japan. In March of 2000, he was elected into the American Bandmasters Association as a composer.

His compositions and arrangements have been used in a variety of situations, such as NBC's coverage of the Presidential Inaugural, Walt Disney's "American Teacher's Awards," welcoming ceremonies in Japan honoring then-President Ronald Regan, Opening Day at Dodger Stadium, the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, the Ringling Brothers/Barnum & Bailey Circus, the Olympic Games, and several television shows both in the United States and Europe.

As a conductor and clinician, he has performed throughout the United States, Canada, Japan, and the United Kingdom. He currently is working on his second CD featuring his works for concert band, as well as completing numerous commissions and several orchestral works for Warner's Belwin Orchestra Series.

He received a bachelor of music education degree from Troy State University and a master of music degree from the University of Miami.

SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS

During this evening's concert various special presentations will be made. Included in these presentations will be the induction of one individual into the SDBA "Hall of Fame".

SOUTH DAKOTA BANDMASTERS HALL OF FAME

Bob King

Bob King began his career in 1958 at Chester. From 1964 to 1974 he taught at Arlington. During the 1974-75 school year he taught at Flandreau then returned to Arlington where he continued to teach until 1991. From 1991-1994, he taught at Dakota State University. He taught part time at the Sioux Valley schools.

Many of Mr. King's bands performed at the music convention. He has been a member of various region music committees and has served as an adjudicator of numerous music contests.

King was named as one of the nations top ten music educators by School Musicians Magazine. Dakota State University gave him its Distinguished Alumnus Award. He served as President of the South Dakota Bandmasters Association. He was named the "Outstanding Bandmaster" in 1980. He was also the recipient of the National Bandmasters Interscholastic Music Association Award.
