ALL-STATE BAND BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The members of the All-State Band were selected by auditioning at one of the five audition centers throughout the State. The four audition judges fly around the State to each site over a period of six days and listen to students. From that number the 163 students that are in this year's band were selected. The members of the Band represent 40 South Dakota schools.

In this year's band there are thirteen students who have played in All-State Band for four years. They are:

Katherine Hartley, Pierre T.F. Riggs – Flute
Leah Olson, Canton – Flute
Keeley MacNeill, Spearfish – Oboe
Daniel P. Graber, Freeman Academy – Clarinet
Jenn Anderson, Madison – Clarinet
Alishia Salmen, Madison – Clarinet
Carrie Ostraat, Canton – Clarinet
Elizabeth Hoarty, Wessington Springs – Bass Clarinet
Mary Peterson, Pierre T.F. Riggs – Bass Clarinet
Eric Sorenson, Sioux Falls Lincoln – Trumpet
Melanie Downs, Rapid City Stevens – Horn
Aubrey Weger, Huron – Horn
John Bergan, Madison - Horn

The South Dakota Bandmasters Association is proud to be Co-Sponsoring this All-State Concert with the South Dakota High School Activities Association. It is the hopes of both Associations that the participants and members of the audience will continue to realize the vital role that music and music education plays in our lives and in our world.

GUEST CONDUCTOR

DOUGLAS AKEY

Douglas Akey began his musical training in the public schools of Elmhurst, Illinois. He attended Arizona State University on a performance scholarship, earning a Bachelor of Music degree in Instrumental Music (1979) and a Master of Music in Solo Performance (1985). He also studied brass performance for two summers at the Banff Centre for the Performing Arts in Alberta, Canada. He has studied horn with Carroll Simmons – Grant Park Orchestra (Chicago), William Strickland – free-lance hornist (New York), Ralph Lockwood – Arizona State University, and Roland Pandolfi – Principal Horn, St. Louis Symphony.

Since 1987, Mr. Akey has been Director of Bands and Music/Drama Department Chairperson at Hendrix Junior High School in Chandler, Arizona. He has been teaching junior high school band in the Phoenix area since 1979. His bands have been invited to perform at numerous education conferences, including the 1994 Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic and the 1998 Music Educators National Conference. He is in demand as a clinician, having directed many junior high and high school honor bands throughout the country. He has also presented sessions at music conventions in Arizona, Colorado, Ohio and Wyoming.

In 1985, Mr. Akey received the Stanbury Award of the American School Band Directors Association as the outstanding young junior high school band director in the United States. Since that time, he has gone on to become recognized as an accomplished composer of school band music. His works have appeared on dozens of state contest lists and are performed by bands throughout North America, Europe, Australia and the Far East. In 1996, he was honored as the National Federation of Secondary Schools Music Educator of the Year for Section 7 (Arizona, California, Hawaii, Nevada and Utah).

Mr. Akey is an active performer, having played with the Del Sol Brass Quintet and Arizona Brass Quintet, as well as the Phoenix and Tucson Symphony Orchestras. He currently serves as principal horn with the Tempe Symphony Orchestra.

SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS

SOUTH DAKOTA BANDMASTER HALL OF FAME

Betty Mudder, Freeman

Betty Boepple Mudder is a graduate of Avon High School and Yankton College where she participated in music activities and graduated with a Bachelor of Music Degree.

Betty has been a Band Director for thirty five of the thirty seven years that she taught music education. She taught for five years at Baltic High School and thirty-two years at Freeman High School. She was the first full time band director at Baltic and one of the first female band directors in South Dakota. The Baltic Band received a superior rating three years at the Region II Large Group Contest while she directed. Also, while at Baltic, Betty served as a member of the Region II Music Committee.

Betty directed the Freeman High School Band for thirty years. Under her direction, the Band received a superior rating twenty-seven times in the Region I Large Group Contests. During the thirty years of her directing the Freeman Band, many students received superior ratings at the Region I Small Ensemble and Solo Contests. There have been one or more of her students in the South Dakota All-State Band twenty-seven of the thirty years that she was the director. The first year that she directed, Freeman had its first student in All-State Band. There have been a total of seventy-one students from Freeman High School with five students in the 1975 and the 1987 All-State Bands. In 1975, Freeman had three first chair members in their All-State Band sections, Bassoon, Tenor Saxophone and Tuba. Other honors for members of her bands were: one in the McDonalds All American Band and six in the John Philip Sousa Band where one student was first chair Trumpet.

Betty took the Freeman Band to Disney World in 1985, 1991 and 1993 and each time they lead the Magic Kingdom Parade. Two superior ratings were received at the All American Music Festival in Orlando, Florida.

Her Band performed two times for the South Dakota Music In-Service Convention at South Dakota State University.

Other local and in state-wide activities included performing at the South Dakota State Fair numerous times, a superior rating in parade competition at the Sioux Falls Festival of Bands and first place in their class at the Hobo Day Parade. The band played for many District and Regional and two State Basketball Tournaments.

Betty was one of the pioneer women band directors in South Dakota. Awards that she has received were in 1986, the first woman to receive the South Dakota Outstanding Bandmaster Award and in 1995 she received the Phi Beta Mu Distinguished Service Award for someone who as made a consistent and significant contribution to instrumental music in South Dakota for ten or more years.

She has been a member of the South Dakota Bandmaster, MENC, ACDA and Phi Beta Mu for which she was the secretary-treasurer for seventeen years.
