Offutt Brass is one of the component ensembles from the 15-member United States Air Force Heartland of America Band, stationed at Offutt Air Force Base near Omaha, Nebraska.

Comprised of two trumpets, horn, trombone, tuba, and percussion, Offutt Brass showcases the Air Force's excellence and precision in every performance with a diverse repertoire featuring classical selections, patriotic favorites, jazz and popular music, new compositions and distinctive arrangements.

These active-duty talented musicians proudly represent the more than 660,000 Air Force professionals around the world who relentlessly protect and defend the freedoms we cherish.

The United States Air Force Band Program

United States Air Force bands consist of two premier bands, ten active duty bands and five Air National Guard bands that feature our nation's finest professional musicians. Our bands honor, inspire and connect reaching over six million listeners at over five thousand live and televised performances each year. Each band operates within their own geographic area of responsibility representing America's Airmen to a global audience.
